Mobilisation of small deposits by States

2656. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU: Will the Minister of FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the entire amount of small deposits mobilized by the States which were earlier accesible to the State Government as loans will henceforth be available only to the tune of 70 percent; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) and (b) Based on the recommendations of an Expert Committee on Administered Interest Rates and Other Related Issues, entire (100%) net small savings collections are deemed to be transferred to the State Governments w.e.f. 1.4.2002, up from the then applicable share of 80%.

In accordance with another recommendation of the said Committee, the Central Government has formulated a 'Debt Swap Scheme' to enable the State Governments to replace their past high cost loans by, Inter-alia, utilising the incremental share of the current small savings collections (20% of net collections released from September to March during 2002-03 and 30% during 2003-04). All State Governments are participating in the scheme during the current financial year.

Expansion of insurance operators

2657. SHRI JANARDHANA POOJARY: Will the Minister of FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Insurance Regulatory and

Development Authority has diluted the definition of rural sector to facilitate and expand the business opportunities for new-age insurance companies;

(b) if so, the details in this regard with new area and sectors now open for the insurance companies;

(c) the insurance benefit provided by the existing insurance companies to the traditional rural sectors during the last three years; and

(d) the details of the rural sectors and areas preferred by the Joint Venture insurance players and whether they are mandated to provide insurance benefit to identified rural sectors?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) and (b) The Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA) has informed that in their rural and social sector regulations they have redefined the rural sector by adopting the census definition of rural sector for the purpose of practical application, better coverage and proper monitoring. In the regulation; 'agricultural pursuits' have been elaborated and 'informal sector' defintion has been added.

(c) and (d) The information is enclosed as Statement.
